“We started with one cake and a lot of love.”
— SAID & BAKED, SINCE DAY ONE

OUR STORY

Not a bakery. A feeling.

Said and Baked started with one homemade cake, one impulsive decision, and two friends who just loved making people happy through desserts.

Now, every dessert is still baked the same way — fresh, in small batches, and made to feel a little personal.

So whether you're celebrating something big, craving something sweet at midnight, or just love "no look around"...

we have a feeling this won't be your last time here ☺

Really impressed with the exquisite cookie tin. The cookies are perfect with a generous amount of chocolate throughout. Quality and presentation — superb. Will order again very soon.

The biscuits were fudgy and cookies had the perfect texture — not overly sweet at all. Loved it and will definitely be ordering more in the future.
